

HighPoint Solutions Opens Tampa Office

East Norriton, PA, October 1, 2012- HighPoint Solutions LLC, a leading provider of specialized IT solutions for the life sciences and healthcare industries, announced the opening of another managed service delivery center. On October 1, 2012 the newest HighPoint office will open its doors and greet the growing market of Tampa, Florida.

The new location will serve HighPoint's Managed Services division, hiring about 100 full-time employees in the next 12 months, drawing talent from the local market and academic community with substantial room for expansion. With this expansion, HighPoint's Managed Services division will grow to 250 full-time employees. As one of HighPoint's delivery centers, the Tampa location will offer clients a robust on-shore option encompassing consulting, application support, application development, mobile development, testing, IT infrastructure support, and other services.

"We have been supporting systems since HighPoint's founding in 2000 and understand the importance of providing high-end, service level based, application support for mission-critical applications," said Brandon McKay, VP of Managed Services & Operations. "We are at the forefront of the latest IT trends that impact our customers, including support of mobile solutions, and as a result, we continue to enhance our application support services portfolio to meet the growing demands of the markets we serve."

Additionally, HighPoint will be hosting career fairs at local universities for students and local talent who are interested in full-time positions within the company.
